

CHAPTER 47

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 28—Relative to passing of Francis J. Ahern.

[Filed with Secretary of State, February 9, 1959.]

WHEREAS, It is with the deepest regret that the Members of the Legislature do hereby mark the sudden passing of the City of San Francisco's dedicated, beloved and respected Police Chief, Francis J. Ahern; and

WHEREAS, Francis J. Ahern left an exemplary record of accomplishment and tireless devotion to duty recognized by all of those around him; and

WHEREAS, He was a native of the City of San Francisco, born south of Market Street 58 years ago, entering its police department in 1929; and

WHEREAS, Francis J. Ahern's outstanding professional and personal qualities resulted in his rise through the ranks of the police department of the City of San Francisco to chief; and

WHEREAS, His devotion to public service was characterized by unending and tireless efforts to make secure the lives and property of the citizens of San Francisco for whom he would frequently unselfishly dedicate his energies to the extent of jeopardizing his own personal health; and

WHEREAS, Under the brief, but unique and inspiring leadership of Francis J. Ahern, San Francisco's police department gained a national reputation for its progress to the point of being one of our Country's most efficient and forward-looking law enforcement agencies; and

WHEREAS, His passing leaves a void in the leadership of his community most difficult to fill and his accomplishments will act as a memorial by which his name will be perpetuated for years to come; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Members of the Legislature of the State of California do hereby pay tribute to the memory of one of America's most outstanding law enforcement officers, Francis J. Ahern; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to Chief Ahern's beloved wife, Mrs. Francis J. Ahern, and his daughter, Bernadette Ahern, and son, Francis J. Ahern, Jr.

CHAPTER 48*Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 29—Relative to the death of Dr. Edward L. Hardy.*

[Filed with Secretary of State, February 9, 1959.]

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of California has learned with deep regret of the passing of Dr. Edward L.

Hardy, distinguished educator and retired college president; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Hardy, whose reputation in the field of education has been memorialized by a San Diego school bearing his name, was President of San Diego State College from 1910 to 1935; and

WHEREAS, He was eminently qualified to hold the position of college president, receiving a bachelor of literature degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1893 where he was selected for membership in Beta Theta Pi and Phi Beta Kappa fraternities, a master of arts degree from the University of Chicago in 1922, and an honorary doctor of laws degree from La Verne College in 1928; and

WHEREAS, In addition to his academic achievements, Dr. Hardy served on the State and San Diego Boards of Education, was appointed associate head master of the Los Angeles Military Academy upon his arrival in California in 1899, and served as principal of Riverside High School, Cook County, Illinois, from 1901 to 1906, and principal of San Diego High School from 1906 to 1910; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Members of the California Legislature profoundly regret the passing of Dr. Edward L. Hardy, President Emeritus of San Diego State College, and an eminent state educator, and extend their deepest sympathies to the bereaved members of his family; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly be directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to Dr. Hardy's widow, Mary Hardy, and his four daughters, Mrs. Anne Davis, Mrs. Mary Hobbs of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Millison Cutler Doble of Sausalito, and Mrs. Esther Pomeroy Winterer of Short Hills, New Jersey.

CHAPTER 49

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 31—Relative to the passing of Pope Pius XII.

[Filed with Secretary of State, February 9, 1959]

WHEREAS, In the passing of Pope Pius XII, the world has lost a leader without peer in his devotion to world peace and the elevation of the human spirit; and

WHEREAS, Throughout his entire pontificate, Pius XII, the Pope of Peace, waged an unceasing battle against those forces that would enslave mankind and destroy the basic freedoms which are the birthright of all men; and

WHEREAS, Pius XII, perhaps more than any one single world leader, succeeded in stemming the tide of atheistic communism in the West, thereby enabling the freedom-loving
